Where do I find convention information?

The EventCadence app is the source of ALL information before/during/after the convention.

Your login to Cadence is the email used for registration. If you were registered by your NAD Union/Conference, contact your union/conference registration coordinator if you are not sure which email was used to register you.

More information: <https://convention.adventisteducation.org/convention-app-information/>

When will I receive my hotel information?

You should be receiving your hotel confirmation email by Thursday, July 27.

If you are staying in one of these hotels, transportation will be provided through Uber. Watch for more information through Cadence messaging.

When are the event check-in/registration days and times?

Monday, August 7

12:00 pm – 6:00 pm

Tuesday, August 8

7:30 am – 5:30 pm

What is the event check-in process?

- Once you arrive at the Phoenix Airport, follow the directions provided by your union or conference to get to your hotel for check-in.
- At the convention center - proceed to the NORTH BUILDING, Level Three, (Pre-function A-E) for registration and check-in.
- Follow the signs for check-in, where you will print your name badge.
 - You should receive a QR code via email on AUGUST 3 to scan at the badge kiosk. Watch for this email. It may end up in your junk/spam folder.
 - However, if you do not have the QR code - enter your name to bring up your badge information.
 - Verify your information is correct and make necessary changes.
- After printing your badge, proceed to your conference/union counter. They will give you a warm welcome, a lanyard and your convention backpack.

Will there be hotel/housing support at the convention center?

NAD Housing support will be on-site at the NAD Counter area.

What are the resources for ADA equipment and rentals?

This list of services has been recommended by the City of Phoenix.

Arrangements should be made on an individual basis and expense. There is no equipment provision at the Phoenix Convention Center.
